

"Hit Parade" Songstress Can Also Dance Nicely

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—Virginia Gibson, the lovely blonde of "Your Hit Parade," is a walking example of her own theory.

Theory: On TV nowadays, you can't just be a singer.

Example: Virginia Gibson is a dancer, primarily. She happens to sing, too, but this is the first job she's ever had—and she's had many—where she was hired as a singer. Heretofore, it's always been that she was hired to dance and she sang incidentally.

That was the case even in Broadway's "Happy Hunting," where she dueted with Ethel Merman on "Mutual Admiration Society."

VIRGINIA GIBSON: "TV needs singer who can move around..."

But nowadays, Ginny says, TV needs singers who can move around. It's not enough just to stand there and sing, no matter how pretty the sounds, because that would be pictorially dull. A singer must move around. Hence musical shows in the market for singers today audition them as dancers, too.

"That's where I'm lucky," says the St. Louis-born Miss Gibson. "I started dancing when I was six. And I've been dancing ever since."

She always sang, too, but as a sideline. On Broadway and in Hollywood she was known as a good dancer who was handy to have around, because she could sing some, too. Then along came "Your Hit Parade," and suddenly her two talents were switched.

There remains her ambition—to be hired some time because she's a good actress, who happens to be able to dance and sing, as well. Some people are never happy.

After a long wholesome career, playing every kind of character under the Sputnik, Donald Woods is currently employed—playing Donald Woods.

This strange bit of casting happens on CBS-TV's relative new daytime serial, "Hotel Cosmopolitan."

The idea is that Woods is a permanent guest and New York hotel. He gets involved with some guests and the stories spring from here. Unlike most serials, where the stories go on and on and on, these last anywhere from two to eight weeks, then new characters are introduced and a new story starts.

For Woods, this means up at six in the morning to get to the studio in time for a nine o'clock rehearsal call. This, plus the show itself and an hour's rehearsal for the next day's show, takes him until two in the afternoon.

"It's easier than many jobs," he says, "but it's harder than many, too."

And it is just a job to Woods, an honest individual who says, quite frankly:

"I'm a mercenary guy. I'm in this business to make a living and I'll do radio or TV or movies or summer stock or anything that pays—as long as the part is right for me, and the vehicle is a good one."

He came to New York after 15 solid years and 30 pictures in Hollywood, in '54. He says he deserted the West Coast because he was hungry to do a Broadway play. He still hasn't done the play, but he's been busy constantly in New York television.

Woods, who surprisingly is old enough to boast a married daughter, has one equally frank ambition:

"I want to be the richest character actor in the business."

Who's doing what? Steve Allen: He and his wife, Jayne Meadows, are wanted by NBC Radio to do a daily husband-and-wife program.

He's interested, too. "It'll give me a chance to sound off like I used to on the old 'Tonight' show," Ted Mack: His present series of "Original Amateur" shows feature a name personality in an off-beat performance. And he's after the biggest of them all—he's trying to get Harry S. Truman to play the piano. Chances, needless to say, are slim. Red Buttons: After "Sayonara," he's serious about serious acting. He studies diligently, goes to classes, practices. And, he says, "I'm more excited than I've been in 20 years."

Danny Thomas: He's just figured out how much comedy material he has committed to memory. The grand total—four hours and 20 minutes.

At a party recently, Phil Silvers was chatting with an acting buddy when an advertising agency executive came along. Turned out the ad man had acting ambitions and asked Phil's friend how much he'd charge to give him acting lessons.

"Tell me," said the actor, "How much do you make a year?"

"Oh, about $30,000," said the ad man.

"In that case," rejoined Phil's friend, "how about giving me lessons?"

Gary, Deborah To Star In Movie

HOLLYWOOD — Gary Cooper and Deborah Kerr have been signed to star in "The Sundowners," an FRZ production for Warner Bros. release, which Fred Zinnemann will produce and direct in Australia. It is announced by Jack L. Warner, president.

"The Sundowners," a romantic drama of the Australian frontier based on the novel by Jon Cleary, is scheduled to go into production early next year, following completion of "The Nun's Story," which Zinnemann will direct for Warner Bros.

Zinnemann will put "The Nun's Story" before the cameras next January, with location filming set for Europe and the Belgian Congo.

Aubrey Hepburn will star in "The Nun's Story," which Henry Blanke will produce from Robert Anderson's screenplay based on the best selling book by Kathryn Hulme.

Black coral once was abundant in the Persian Gulf, but now is found chiefly along the Australian Barrier Reef.

Burl Ives Developed His Memory

HOLLYWOOD — (INS) — If you want to hit the financial jackpot, the best way to start the checkbook is to develop a fool-proof memory.

This, at least, is the advice of actor and folk singer, Burl Ives, who says the quickest way to that pot of gold at the end of the rainbow is the ability to remember the names of your boss's kids.

"Anyone can develop a wonderful memory and most people can have a photographic one if they'll put their minds to it," Burl said with a know-it-all look in his eye.

Burl, who is more actor than folk singer these days, stunned Hollywood a few years ago when he learned the entire script of "The Man Who Came To Dinner" in six days. The role is second in length only to that of "Henry V."

"It's really easy when you know how," the portly, bearded actor declared. "You see, when I was there I had to give my first performance singing folk songs my mother taught me."

"My memory was so poor when I was a child that my parents were concerned about it and that's how I started working on memory aids. They had me memorize passages from the Bible that I have not forgotten to this day."

"I began testing my memory every spare minute," he went on, "to see if I could remember verbatim what people said. You'd be surprised if you knew how fast you can develop your mind if you give it just a little exercise—like you give your legs when you're riding a bicycle."

Burl logically pointed out that if a person lies in bed for a week without any exercise he's weak as a kitten.

"The same thing happens," he said, "if you don't give your mind a few calisthenics."

Burl should know. In the past few years, he has managed to write four books, including his autobiography, has co-starred in several movies, appeared in a number of stage plays and hundreds of concerts, and recorded numerous folk songs.

"The best way to start training your memory," he said, "is to learn rhythmic poetic passages because the chain association is so important in first trying to remember."

Burl thinks a good memory is essential to anyone's success, whether he's a bookkeeper or a fish salesman.

"Anyone respects a good memory," he added, "and I know the ability to remember names of people one meets in business has spelled the success of many a man."

Ann Sothorn, Lucille Ball Sought As Movie Team

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Exclusively Yours: Ann Sothorn and Lucille Ball clowning it up behind bars under the influence of too much Cuban rum in the season's first king-size "I Love Lucy" TV show gave several movie producers a hangover—how to get them as a comedy team into a big screen movie. The gals are willing—if the script is right—and both are chuckling about the irony of it all. Ann was the queen of the RKO movie lot when Lucille first started there and Lucy still likes to tell it:

"I always had to play the roles Ann didn't want."

What's new with Ann since she checked out of the "Private Secretary" series with a big check for her rights to 104 films? She may do another series next year—"But not a western," she laughed—and she's recorded a soon-to-be-released song album titled, "Sothorn Exposure."

She's "swingin' way out with a real modern beat," she says, on old songs like "Always," "Summertime" and "Ballin' the Jack" in her first pro warbling since she introduced "Let's Fall in Love" and "The Last Time I Saw Paris" in pre-TV movies.

Unhappy about all those "Maize" flickers now on the airwaves?

"Unhappy"—are you kidding? she smiled. "Why, they're giving me a new generation of fans. I'm getting mash notes from nine-year-old boys."

Red Skelton's recent south of the border trips were about a big deal to leave a dog racing track in Mexico City for conversion into a combination drive-in theatre supper club for showings of "Around the World in 80 Days."

The film, starring Mexico's film idol, Cantinflas, hasn't yet played there because Mike Todd wants to beat the Mexican government's 20-centing on movie tickets. The supper club instead of snack bar idea is the gimmick. Red, by the way, has his dander up about TV censorship.

"They wouldn't let me say the word 'idiot' the other night," he winced, "even after I told them there was an idiot—me—on the show."

But he is serious about how come old movies aren't being censored. "If they start censoring of Jean Harlow's old films," says Red, "all they'll have left will be five-minute newsreels."

Jack Benny's still smarting about the reaction to his one-night appearance on the $64,000 Question show. Not the idea of showing up to quit at $64, but the way the show advertised him as a legitimate contestant. Says Jack:

"They took advantage of a publicity stunt and ruined the gag."

But he still doesn't regret it. "I learned a long time ago," he told me, "that the best things for me to do in show business were the things I want to do. I wanted to do the show because the gag didn't fit anyone except me. I'm just sorry about the advertising and some of the publicity that made it sound like it was on the level."

Comedians like Jackie Gleason and Sid Caesar may be on the not-wanted shelf this year, but one Hollywood star is saying, "I'm doing more and more TV because it gives me my only chance to do comedy." On big screens Fred MacMurray, the star who was talking, is a heavy drama man but as a TV guest, with Dinah Shore, George Gobel, Lucille Ball and on Shower of Stars he's getting laugh skips.

When Dean Martin and Gisele MacKenzie started a duet on Club Oasis and completed it by running down the hall to her show, which follows Club Oasis, they MAZDA 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries) — Mars' position urges steady strength of purpose, the willingness to take a few rebuffs (if they occur), and the courage to believe in your goals and to use well-tested procedures. "If you don't at first succeed," etc.

JUNE 21 to JULY 21 (Cancer) — Your special planet, the Moon, is in grand aspect. Waste no time, getting started with your days program. Do some extra favors, too — and graciousness.

JULY 21 to AUGUST 23 (Leo) — Make up your mind you WON'T be perturbed at things that go awry, since you are likely to find some irritating situations and, very possibly, people who will prove contentious. YOU KEEP SHILING.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo) — Stop to analyze your own actions and words. Are they all you really mean them to be? Don't you not be doing those very things for which you criticize others? Think about that today.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 23 (Libra) — Inspiration and initiative can lead to rapid advancement now. You are capable and persevering when at your best — which you should be now. Get facts, don't guess; be accurate.

NOVEMBER 24 to DECEMBER 21 (Scorpio) — Mars' splendid aspect encourages an appropriate use of your talents and knowledge. Add a new, perhaps unique, touch to daily routine. No matter how long you may have suffered because of it. Help: have compassion, tolerance.

DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn) — First things first! Don't permit non-essentials to interfere with important matters. Your outlook for success this day is bright. But big — in the real sense of the word.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius) — Plan activities according to your capacity to deliver. And, remember, you do need some time for rest and recreation, so allocate tasks with that thought in mind.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces) — With all the mixed emotions, combinations of pleasant and unpleasant dispositions and tactics prevalent, you may feel tempted to grouch or say, "I don't care." You DO care; help others to feel better.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a brilliant mind and great versatility: are always equal to emergencies. No matter how long you may have been sidetracked from a project, you can take it up again with vigor and success. You are sometimes susceptible to flattery, but you never indulge in pettiness: are roundly capable, zealous; enjoy difficult attainment; the most: Birthdate: Laurence, G. Man Fights Traffic Violation, Plans Appeal

HONOLULU (AP) — Lucien G. Dodge was charged with violating the right of way in a minor traffic accident. He refused to forfeit his $25 bond, announced he would fight the charge, and subpoenaed a list of defense witnesses including the chief of police and much of the rest of the force.

Dodge lost the case. He was fined $25. He said he was thinking of appealing to the Supreme Court.

Kentucky Michaels Only NEA All-America Repeat

Army Sophomore Picked, Seven Members Seniors

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Football players are the combat troops of athletics. They are sprinters, hurdlers, distance runners, shotputters and javelin throwers in armor. They are foot soldiers who also travel by air and when a team has a passer like Lee Grosscup it packs a projector of guided missiles.

The way football is played today, the combatants must be quick thinkers as well as outstanding all-round athletes.

So, when an All-America team is shaken down from more than 100 strong candidates picked from the thousands of college boys who participated in the savage competition of the most complex game played, its members are necessarily the world's finest athletes.

Here are the young men adjudged the most formidable at their respective positions and elected by the nation's coaches and football writers to the 1937 NEA All-America team:

END—Big Red Jimmy Phillips, Auburn, 21, 6-2 1/2, 215 (Alex City, Ala.) and Dick Wallen, UCLA, 20, 6-0, 185 (Alhambra, Calif.)

TACKLES—Lou Michaels, Kentucky, 21, 6-1, 235 (Swoyersville, Pa.) and Alex Karras, Iowa, 22, 6-2, 233 (Gary, Ind.)

GUARDS—Bill Johnson, Tennessee, 21, 5-11, 190 (Sparta, Tenn.) and Bill Krisher, Oklahoma, 21, 6-1, 213 (Midwest City, Okla.)

CENTER—Bob Reifsnyder, Navy, 20, 6-2, 235 (Rockville Centre, N. Y.)

QUARTERBACK—Lee Grosscup, Utah, 20, 6-0, 178 (Santa Monica, Calif.)

BACKS—Bob Anderson, Army, 19, 6-2, 200 (Cocoa, Fla.); John Crow, Texas A. and M., 22, 6-2, 214 (Springhill, La.); and Walt Kowalczyk, Michigan State, 22, 6-0, 205 (Westfield, Mass.)

To each of these carefully screened young men goes an engraved gold watch from the Longines-Wittnauer Co. and a handsome and specially designed NEA All-America certificate. Then each will be further honored by a testimonial dinner in his home town.

Army Soph Picked

A sophomore rarely crashes the All-America, which gives you a rough idea of just how formidable is Army's 19-year-old Bob Anderson. With the all-important Navy game still to come, the loping 6-2, 200-pound cadet from Cocoa, Fla., with an amazing 965 yards, already has surpassed the brilliant Glenn Davis' all-time West Point record.

Seven of the All-America men are seniors, the other three juniors. Lou Michaels, Kentucky tackle, is the only repeater. Three are from the Southeast and two each from the East, Midwest, Southwest and Far West.

Imagine what a team would do with Grosscup of Utah pitching behind backs like Anderson, John Crow of Texas A. and M. and Michigan State's Walt Kowalczyk.

Grosscup, who all but chased Army off the Hudson Highlands, completed 86 of 124 passes for 1,327 yards and 10 touchdowns for a percentage of .693, an all-time college record. Making this feat all the more remarkable is that only two of his passes were intercepted. He completed 12 of 13 against Colorado State in one of the worst snow storms that a Utah team has ever played in.

Capable of Being Pro

All coaches who have seen Grosscup say he could make any professional team and the Santa Monica, Calif., lad has another year of college ball.

"He's even better than was Sid Luckman," testifies Red Blaik of Army. "I got the impression that he could hit his receiver anywhere on the field."

"Lee can throw the long one and the short one, is never rattled and is tough to bring down even when linemen break through," says Cactus Jack Curcio of Utah.

Crow and Kowalczyk—pronounced Ko-wal-chick—simply ran over people. Crow is described as the best college back in the land. Red Sanders of UCLA, nicknamed Kowalczyk "The Sprinting Blacksmith" when the Westfield, Mass., knock'em-downer was a sophomore.

Nowadays, ends are actually big halfbacks who excel on defense. Big Red Jimmy Phillips is not the least reason why Auburn has not yielded a touchdown on the ground this season.

Southern Californians considered Dick Wallen, a pre-law student, their foremost performer. Wallen won four games for depleted UCLA almost single-handedly. Offensively he beat Illinois and Washington. Defensively he repelled Oregon State and Washington State with interceptions.

Michals Back

Tackles must be big enough to stop a blocker and quick enough to move laterally and diagonally. Lou Michaels was better than ever in Kentucky's losing cause. Alex Karras was immense for Iowa on the sales and the field.

Guards must be cat-like hand-fighters quick to diagnose plays. Bill Johnson of Tennessee was spectacular blocking kicks and recovering fumbles playing guard on offense and tackle on defense, in 1947.

usually from 40 to 45 minutes. He outran a Georgia Tech sophomore halfback who is a sprinting champion. The enemy concentrated on Bill Krisher, but this destroyer of shoulder pads, continued to stir up trouble for Oklahoma.

The center should be the stoutest defender. Bob Reifsnyder is a Navy tackle who became a center. He switched back when Jim Martinez broke his leg. Eddie Erdelatz plays this big guy where he's needed most.

It goes without saying that there are remarkable players on the second and third teams and being dismissed with nothing more than honorable mention.

But there is no sense in picking an All-America team unless you listen to the electorate.

And the 1937 NEA All-America team would not exactly put another team back on its feet.

Colts To Battle For Survival In Sunday Game With 49ers

By JIM KENSIL
The Associated Press

The 1937 Baltimore Colts have already won as many games as any Baltimore team ever did in the National Football League. Tomorrow they go for No. 6 against the San Francisco 49ers in a Western Conference game that will virtually eliminate the loser from the title race.

And the winner could move into sole possession of first place in the division if the Detroit Lions should lose to the Chicago Bears.

The 49ers, Colts and Lions are tied for the Western lead with 5-3 records. Each has three games to play after today, but the schedule definitely favors the Lions.

In other action tomorrow, Green Bay is at Pittsburgh, Los Angeles at Cleveland, New York at the Chicago Cards and Washington at Philadelphia.

The Colts are a touchdown favorite over the 49ers at Baltimore and the Lions rate the same edge over the visiting Bears, the Westerners' fifth place team with a 3-5 mark.

Pittsburgh is favored by 3, Cleveland by 4; New York by 6; and Washington by 2.

Cleveland, boasting the league's leading rusher in Jimmy Brown and the top passer in Tommy O'Connell, can nail down the Eastern Conference championship by winning all its remaining games. The Browns have a 6-1-1 mark while the runner-up Giants are 6-2. With the other Eastern clubs just about out of the running, the Cleveland-New York battle at New York Dec. 13 should decide the division king.

Celtics Gaining Even When Idle

By The Associated Press

Even when they're idle, Boston's Celtics gain ground in the National Basketball Assn.

The classy Celts had a seven-game edge in the Eastern Division today after Syracuse missed a chance to close ground by losing 102-98 to Cincinnati last night in the only game scheduled. The defeat dropped the Nationals into a three-way tie for second place with Philadelphia and New York.

Cincinnati, winning 61 of 11, now is within a half game of St. Louis, the Western Division pacesetter.

Clyde Lovelette collected 21 of his 30 points in the second half of the Royals, cracking a 97-all tie with a long push shot with a minute to play.

FRANK RYAN POSTS HIGH ODC TOTALS

Frank Ryan had top game and set (198-513) but Tarpon dropped a 3-0 match to Pike in the outdoor Club Men's Bowling League. Dick Mills paced the winners with 189-497.

Salmon posted the other sweep in blanking Muskies, 3-0, while Perch edged Bass, 2-1, and Trout dropped a 2-1 decision to Catfish.

Other team leaders were "Butch" Johnson, 178-429; Catfish, "Ernie" Gehauf, 162-428; Trout, Bob Pollack, 180-445; Muskies, Emory Turner, 153-433; Salmon, Ed Belfoure, 155-415; Perch, "Gals" Seiler, 179-417; Bass.

Locks Pad Margin In Railway Sweep

Locks swept Hex, 3-0, and Squares won over Castles, 2-1, in the Western Maryland Railway Bowling League. With the shut-out Locks now lead by four games over runnerup Squares.

Team scoring leaders were Arcangelis, 188-520; Locks, Sick, 144-416; Hex, Moulden, 194-485; Squares; Klavuhn 182 and Owens 161. Castles.

Calhoun Posts 'Double Kayo' In Boyd Fight

By JACK HAND

The Associated Press
NEW YORK—"For the first time in 50 years of managing, my guy knocks out the same fellow twice in one night."

That was the gleeful reaction of Rory Calhoun's manager, Frank Bachman, after last night's confounding ending at Madison Square Garden. It was a great night for Bachman, who used to be satisfied when his Maxie Rosenbloom scored his annual knockout.

Confused Sign
Calhoun clobbered Bobby Boyd of Chicago with a right to the body and another right to the chin at the start of the second round.

Boyd went down. He staggered to his feet at five, fell against the ropes and bounced around the ring as the count went to eight. Referee Al Berl extended his arms in a motion that about 2,499 of the estimated 2,500 fans understood to be the end of the bout.

As Boyd started toward his corner, Berl suddenly wiped off his gloves and waved the boys into action.

Calhoun clouted Boyd on the side of the head with a long right hand punch and down he went again. The count reached three before Berl positively stopped it.

Berl Denies Statement
"I was waving Calhoun to a neutral corner," said Berl. "I didn't stop it until after the second round." Boyd said the referee told him not to fight any more, it was all over.

Berl claimed he said nothing to Boyd about stopping the fight. Bernie Clickman, Boyd's manager, was screaming in the dressing room, ready to protest to the New York State Athletic Commission.

The rhubarb detracted from the performance of Calhoun, who officially was credited with a technical knockout in 25 seconds of the second round of a 10-round match. Calhoun, the 2 to 1 favorite, weighed 160, Boyd 159 pounds.

Billy Brown, matchmaker of the International Boxing Club, said he would try to match Calhoun, No. 3 in the ratings and No. 5 with the National Boxing Assn. with Gene Fullmer, the No. 2 contender.

Knights Register 3-0 K-P Shutout

Knights chalked up the only 3-0 shutout in the K or P Mixed Bowling League while Senators slipped by Esquires and Pages edged Seniors in 2-1 matches.

Team scoring leaders were Violet Weber, 113-310, and Virgil Weber, 225-554. Esquires: Ann Derrington, 121-304, and Walter McKee, 145-382. Senators: Courtwright, 151-365, Robert Wade Jr., 181-483. Knights: Owens, 107-302, and Harry Dickerhoff Jr., 170-396. Chiefs: Angela Wade, 140-307, and "Pete" Horwath, 174-480. Pages: Neda Lucas, 126-327, and Robert Wade Jr., 128-337. Seniors: Standings:

Hearts Blank Clubs In B & O Dux Loop

Only one of the matches in the B & O Mixed Bowling League finished in a shutout as Hearts blanked Clubs, 3-0, while Diamonds were taking the odd game from Spades, 2-1.

Spades' Bill Wagner took both high game and set with 188-465. Other team leaders were Jack Perkins, 175-423, and Barb Sarver, 125-347. Diamonds: Polly Perkins, 104-271, and Bill Sheetz, 135-393. Hearts: Jack Rowan, 145-411, and Joyce Appel, 109-267. Clubs: Betty Biyac, 130-330. Spades.

Romney Quint May Surprise In Coming Basketball Season

With two starters back, coach Clyde Green of Romney High may have one of the surprise quints in the area for the coming basketball season.

Sophomore Bill Maphis, six-foot, three-inch center, and stands six-two, are the nucleus around which the Pioneer squad will be built. Another important addition will be Sam Williams, six-three senior transfer from Virginia.

The Pioneers last season won 17 and lost six overall while posting 14 wins and only four setbacks in the Potomac Valley Conference. Romney won its first game in the Section 6-A tourney by whipping Franklin, 54-47, but lost to Keyser, 65-64, in the overtime finale.

Romney will again play a 21-game schedule, most of the opponents being in the PVC. The only new foe is Martinsburg, the Bulldogs replacing Piedmont in two contests.

The opener is against Ridgeley on the Hawks' home floor Friday, December 6. The first home appearance will be against Paw Paw in the fifth game of the season. The schedule and roster:

MRS. INDEX, YOU SAY
YOU KNEW GOLDFIE LARUE!
SHE WAS FOUND DEAD IN A LOCAL MOTEL. YOUR NAME
AND ADDRESS WERE WRITTEN ON A SLIP OF PAPER IN HER PURSE.

I TOLD YOU SHE WAS HERE ASKING FOR MONEY! YOU MUST KNOW MY RECORD
BY NOW! SHE WAS
ONCE A CELLMATE
OF MINE!

...SO I'M A SITTING DUCK
FOR ANY RAP BIGGER
THAN A PARKING TICKET
THAT BREAKS IN THIS RUBE TOWN.

IF THE LARUE
WOMAN TRIED TO BLACKMAIL YOU,
IT COULD BE A
MOTIVE FOR MUR-DER!

YOU'LL HAVE TO DO
BETTER THAN THAT,
COPPER! THE TWO
GIRLS NEXT DOOR
WERE HERE FROM THE
HOUSE UNTIL MY HUS-BAND CAME HOME

THAT'S ALL YOU NEED. I TALKED TO THOSE KIDS -
WHAT IF THEY
BACK UP YOUR STORY?

SEEN HIS CAR?

WHAT DO YOU
MEAN? CLINT
WOULDN'T LEAVE
VOLUNTARILY!
HE HAD NO REASON TO!

I MUST ASK A FEW QUESTIONS -
HAD THERE BEEN ANY QUARRELS
COULD HE HAVE BEEN INTER-ESTED IN "ER-ANYONE ELSE?"

CERTAINLY NOT! WE WERE VERY CLOSE!
HE WAS DEVOTED TO HIS HOME, AND RARELY
LEFT IT WITHOUT ME!
